

In order for you dog(s) to partake in services provided by The Pup Roundup you must agree to the following terms of service:

- 1) My dog is generally well behaved and friendly towards people and other animals.
- 2) I understand that there is inherent risk involved in allowing my dog to be in a public space. If my dog fails to recall while attending an Off-Leash setting, I am responsible for my dog's actions. The Pup Roundup will do everything possible to recall dogs and keep them from harming themselves. The Pup Roundup will immediately follow emergency procedures should a dog run off from the pack.
- 3) The Pup Roundup is not responsible for any damaged equipment, supplies or property owned by me or anyone else that is caused by my dog. I am responsible for all damages and destructive behavior caused by my dog in my home, the company vehicle, kennel and any other property my dog may visit while in the care of The Pup Roundup.
- 4) The Pup Roundup will not be held responsible for the consequences should my dog suddenly become aggressive or threatening to other dogs or humans. My dog will be removed immediately from the situation with utmost care and attention and I will be notified immediately.
- 5) The Pup Roundup is not responsible for any injuries my dog may incur while in the care of staff or the contraction of any viruses/diseases/parasites. First aid will be administered immediately by staff should pets be injured while in our care, severity assessed and I will be notified immediately should my dog require emergency medical assistance.
- 6) The Pup Roundup has my permission to seek emergency medical assistance on my dog's behalf should they be unable to contact me personally. Staff will take your dog to the nearest vet/hospital/clinic if needed. The Pup Roundup is not financially responsible for any fees accrued in the process of obtaining medical attention on my dog's behalf.
- 7) I am responsible for registering my dog with the City of Calgary.
- 8) I am responsible for paying my invoice upon receipt.

This waiver ensures that all clients of The Pup Roundup maintain full responsibility for their own and their dog's actions for the entirety of the services delivered. The Pup Roundup reserves the right to remove client(s) from our care permanently should we deem their behavior dangerous or unsuited for our services.
